

Pettigrew

Urn Catalogue

Keeping your loved one close

Our full range of urns can be viewed at our Mayfield West office or online at pettigrew.com.au, a popular selection is on show at Wallsend & Belmont.

The grief of time passing, of life moving on half-finished, of empty spaces that were once bursting with the laughter and energy of people we love

As long as there is love there will be grief because grief is love's natural continuations

It shows up in the aisles of stores we once frequented, in the half-finished bottle of wine we pour out, in the whiff of cologne we get two years after they've been gone

Grief is a giant neon sign, protruding through everything, pointing everywhere, broadcasting loudly, "Love was here"

In the finer print, quietly, "Love still is"
